TASK-5

1. If we can establish a connection between org_id and last few recent logins and if there is a correlation we can predict future usage.
2. And also the creation procedure may also be plotted along with having more than three logins.
3. In the same way we establish a relation if there is one over opting to marketing and mailing list to having logged in more than three days in about a week.
4. Creation source same described as above.